WHARF AND WAVE

Pumping with the dredger will probably be resumed tomorrow.

W. D. Berry, a jolly good fellow, is now freight clerk on the Makee. Men from the Hyacinth had pistol practice on Sumner Island yesterday. Two and one-half tons of rice were sent out to the laborers on the Nanshan yesterday afternoon.

There are 400 tons of freight, including fireworks, saki and general merchandise, aboard the Nanshan.

The Alice Cooke will go on the dry dock on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. She will leave in ballast the early part of next week.

The barks Martha Davis and S. C. Allen, and the brigantine W. G. Irwin, all arrived at San Francisco on October 15th-19, 18 and 19 days, respectively, from Honolulu.

The Seattle papers report that the steamer Haytian Republic is to go on the Puget Sound-Honolulu run as soon as she can be put in order in San Francisco. A crew has already been signed.

The new steamer of the Inter-Island Company will enter the harbor Tuesday night or Wednesday morning. She left San Francisco, October 20th, under the sailing name of Eyas.

The successor of the Bishop will be called "Ke Au Hou" (the New Era.) She is mentioned in the San Francisco papers as being a neat craft. Her arrival here is awaited with much interest.

There was one passenger on the Arawa who attracted a great deal of attention. He was a veritable giant-nearly, if not quite, 8 feet in height. He was followed around town by an admiring crowd of na tive boys.

Captain Smith, of the Mauna Ala, is well-known in Honolulu, and had a number of callers yesterday. He has lost his old first mate, Tom Smith. The latter took unto himself, at Melbourne, a wife and settled there. Wolcott, formerly second mate, was also married on the voyage. He is here and his bride is in Newcastle. Tom Smith was a great favorite in this port. He was quite a musician and was one of the stars at the Scotch Thistle Club's smoking concert last

Deputy Consul Boyd Will Stay.

W. P. Boyd, Vice and Deputy United States Consul, will not go to Melbourne. The order assigning him to that post has been revoked. Mr. Boyd will remain in Honolulu. The letters from Washington say that this arrangement is "for the present." In all likelihood the popular young deputy is a fixture here.

Mr. Boyd is one of thirteen consular clerks in the United States T. R. Keyworth ...... Auditor service. He has been on the list since 1887. When a careful, experienced and reliable man was required here Mr. Boyd was sent from Paris.

Mr. Thurston at Work.

Correspondence relating to the mission of Hon. L. A. Thurston was read at Saturday's meeting of the Immigration Board. Minister King presided and all the members were present.
